

Advice On Managing Your Show My Homework Account

To do list

If you click on your 'to do list', your home learning is organized by the date it is due, not the date it has been set.

This can be a bit confusing.

Calendar

If you go into your 'calendar' instead it is easier to see what was set on a given day.

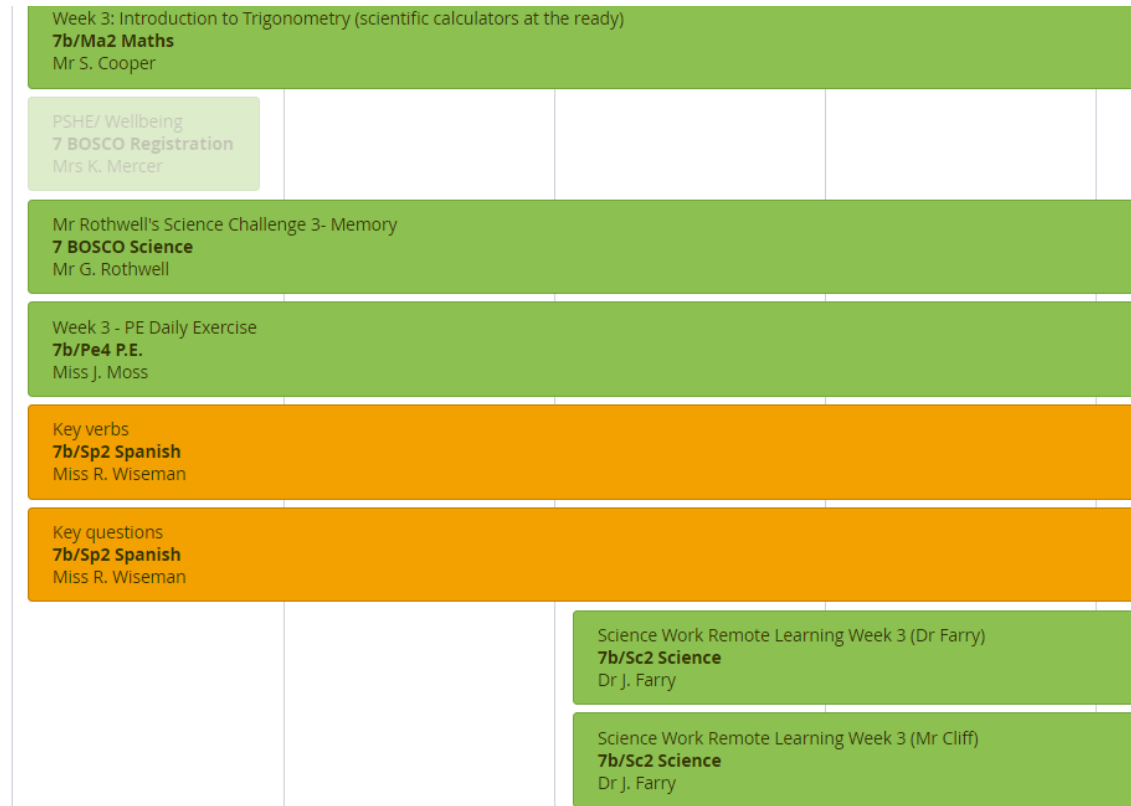

For example, this pupil was set Maths and Spanish on Monday according to the timetable for year 7.

They were also set a daily exercise to do for PE and an extra Science challenge.

By using the calendar you know exactly what was set by your teachers each day.

A vertical sidebar menu with a dark blue background. At the top is a profile picture and the text 'Account settings'. Below it is a green button labeled 'To-do list'. The main menu items are: 'Calendar' (with a calendar icon), 'Gradebook' (with a book icon), 'Notice board' (with a pin icon), 'My drive' (with a folder icon), 'Support' (with a gear icon), and 'Logout' (with a power icon).

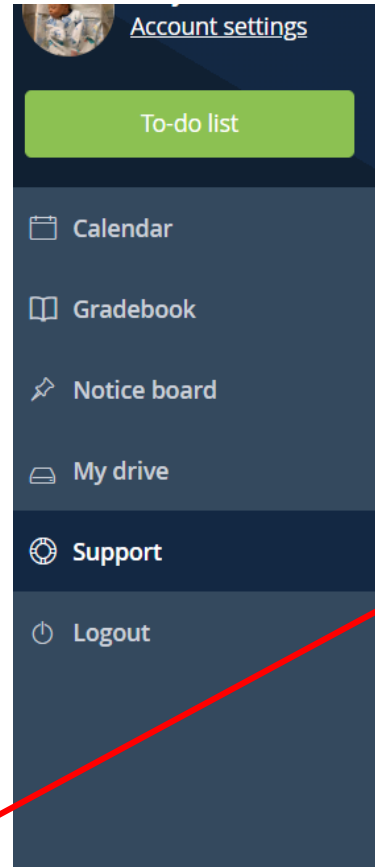

A weekly calendar grid showing lessons for a week. The grid has 7 columns representing days. Lessons are shown as colored blocks:

Jealousy in Shakespeare's Othello 13x/En1

Description Results Submit

Mr J. Sinclair set this assignment for group 13x/En1 - English

Set on Wed 18 Mar Due on Wed 25 Mar

Task description

Iago:
O, beware, my lord, of jealousy;
It is the green-ey'd monster, which doth mock
The meat it feeds on"

Jealousy in Othello

Iago first suggests the idea of jealousy to Othello in Act 3, Scene iii. From there, jealousy concentrates Othello's mind so completely on one idea - the idea that Desdemona has betrayed him with Cassio - that he can entertain no other assurance or explanation. This obsession totally removes Othello's ability to reason, his common sense, and his respect for justice. It is only once he has killed Desdemona and realises that she was innocent that he recovers.

Write an essay that investigates and discusses Othello's jealousy and Iago's role in this. How does Othello's character change when he is overcome with jealousy?

Please submit your homework online.
