

Sci Box

Here are some Science Programmes that you can watch at home.
All episodes are available on catch up tv, BBC iPlayer or Freeview.

Day	Channel and Time	Description	Links to the Curriculum
Wednesday	Channel 5 7pm	Wild Britain The documentary explores forests and their wildlife, revealing the increasing populations of previously wild boar and goshawks.	Ecosystems Food Chains, Habitats
Thursday	BBC 2 9pm	Hospital The documentary looks at the work of the NHS in the North West city of Liverpool. Tonight's episode focusses on Alder Hey Children's Hospital and treating life-threatening skull and facial abnormalities.	Health Non-Communicable disease Inheritance
Friday	Channel 4 8pm	Coronavirus: Can you avoid it? This programme covers a science experiment to look at how droplets are transmitted through a typical day, at home, on the commute, at work and interactions we all have.	Transmission of diseases Viral Diseases Communicable disease
Saturday	BBC 2 7pm	Australia: Earth's Magic Kingdom This documentary looks at Australia's coast and islands, as well as looking at the environment for whales, cuttlefish and sharks.	Ecosystems Interdependence Habitats
Sunday	BBC iplayer	Climate Change - The Facts Sir David Attenborough looks at the Science of Climate Change and potential solutions to this global threat.	Global Warming Changes to the Atmosphere Effect on the Planet

