Dear Parent,

Year 11 English Revision Guides – 2021/2022

I am writing to offer you an opportunity to purchase a selection of revision books for your child's GCSE English Language and Literature course.

I recommend these titles whole-heartedly as a means of supporting your child's revision currently taking place in the classroom, afterschool sessions and at home. The books offered here are cheaper than recommended retail prices via shops or the internet.

Furthermore, I have also recommended some titles below that you can purchase independently plus a selection of revision websites for your child to access. Regarding any revision resources, it is recommended that you ensure that they are compatible with the exam boards; EDUQAS for English Language and AQA for English Literature. Please see below for the list of revision resources available to purchase via school.
